

Gion Matsuri

Yoiyama and Procession Guide
Saki-Matsuri 7/17

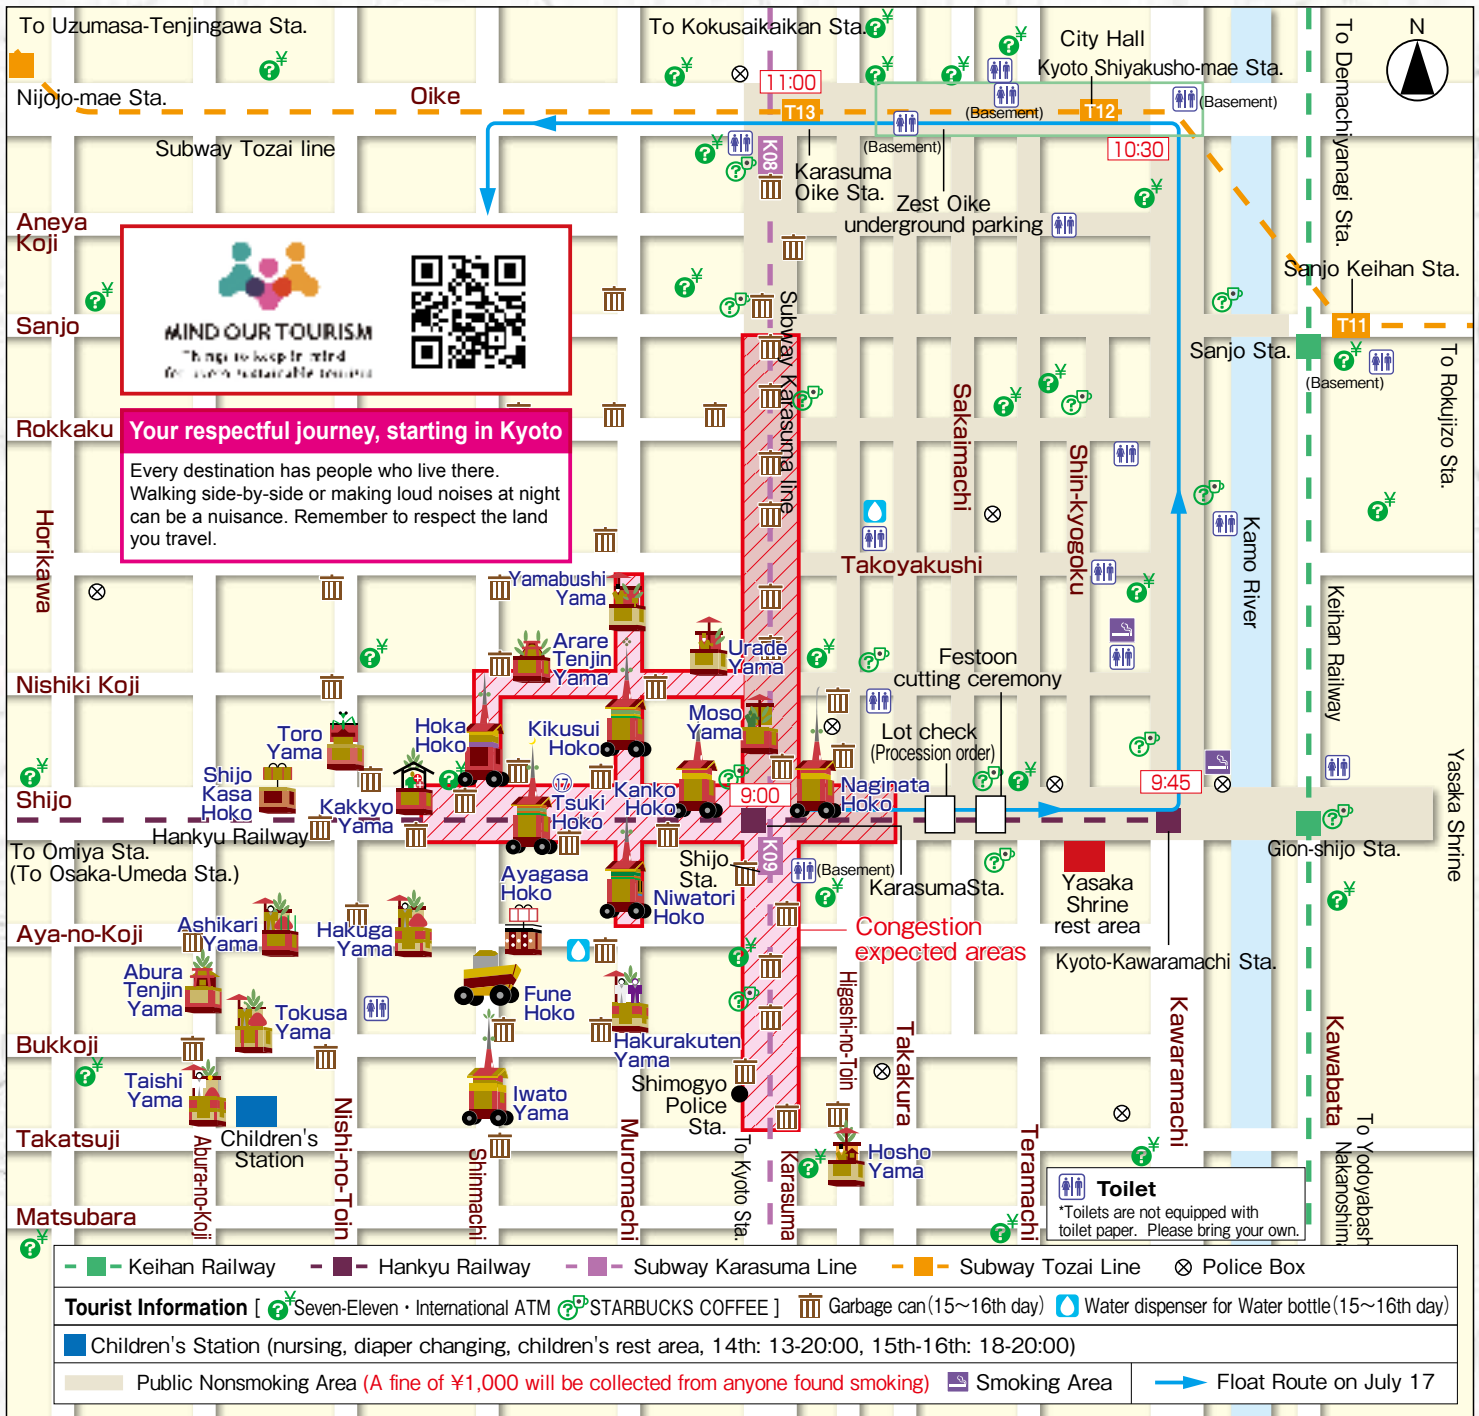

Stroly

Presented by
The Gion Matsuri Yoiyama Council

Kyoto Prefecture, Kyoto City, YASAKA Shrine, The Gion Matsuri Support Association, The Gion Matsuri Yamahoko Federation, Kyoto City Tourist Association, The Kyoto Municipal Transportation Bureau, Keihan Holdings Co., Ltd. Keihan Electric Railway Co., Ltd, Hankyu Corporation, The Non-Profit Foundation for Preservation of Kyoto's Cultural Sightseeing Resources

~Notice from Kyoto Police~

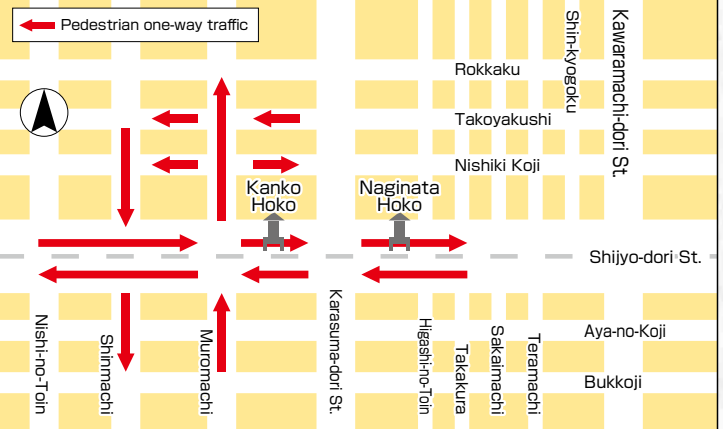

On July 15 and 16 only, vehicle-free areas are implemented from 18:00 until around 23:00 on Shijo-dori Street and Karasuma-dori Street.
During this time period, you are not allowed to enter/exit vehicles at parking lots in the controlled areas. Anticipate enough time to enter/exit vehicles.

During the pedestrianized time,
PEDESTRIANS MUST PROCEED ON THE LEFT SIDE OF SHIJO-DORI STREET.

On Yoi-yoi-yoi-yama (July 14) and from July 21 to 23, the three days prior to "Ato-matsuri" (the latter festival), vehicle-free areas are NOT placed on Shijo-dori Street and Karasuma-dori Street, and stalls are NOT set up.

Flow of pedestrians when vehicle-free areas are arranged

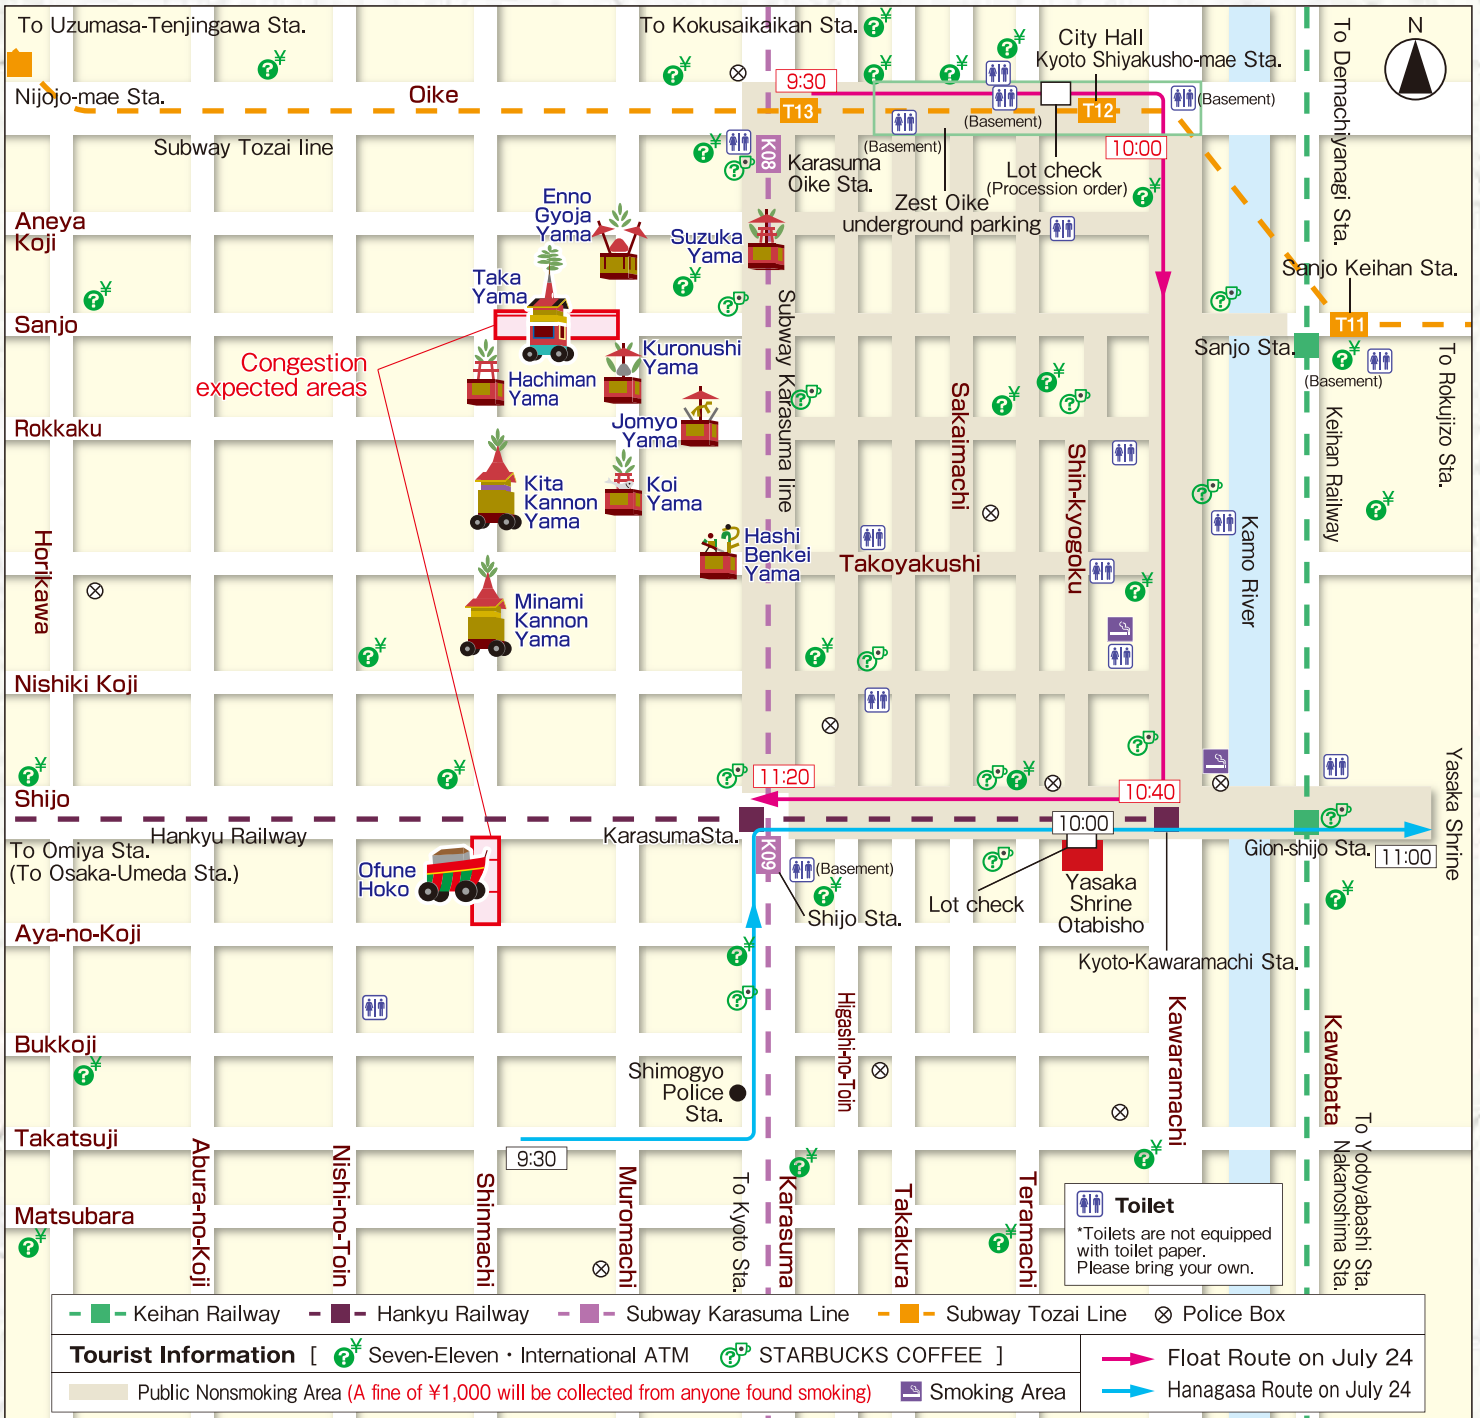

Gion Matsuri

Yoiyama and Procession Guide
Ato-Matsuri 7/24

Presented by
The Gion Matsuri Yoiyama Council

Kyoto Prefecture, Kyoto City, YASAKA Shrine, The Gion Matsuri Support Association, The Gion Matsuri Yamahoko Federation, Kyoto City Tourist Association, The Kyoto Municipal Transportation Bureau, Keihan Holdings Co., Ltd., Keihan Electric Railway Co., Ltd., Hankyu Corporation, The Non-Profit Foundation for Preservation of Kyoto's Cultural Sightseeing Resources

Your respectful journey,
starting in Kyoto

Every destination has people who live there
Walking side-by-side or making loud noises at night can be a nuisance.
Remember to respect the land you travel.

MIND OUR TOURISM
Things to keep in mind
for Kyoto sustainable tourism

